Tomorrow

Engineers and their works have always captivated the onlooker. From their dreams have sprung masterpieces in wood and steel and stone. The Taj Mahal, the Grand Coulee Dam, and the Golden Gate Bridge, are dazzling.

"But," you will say, "what can a poor Senior do but admire?" Perhaps the Senior has never heard the saying, "You are the architect of your own fortune." In fact, there is an expression quite common to America, "He was a self-made man." Certainly you can do much to mold and shape and fashion the most interesting object in the world —yourself.

What is this we heard recently from Washington? "Stay in school." The 1942 edition of WHO's WHO records that nine out of ten successful men and women attended college, and that three out of every four were graduated. In addition, the investigations of the Rockefeller Foundation and of the Carnegie Foundation indicate that a person with an education has an advantage of 20 to 1 in succeeding in life. In other words, in any field of endeavor, whether it is business, nursing, aviation, or any other field worth while, science, mathematics, art ,and other subjects such as you study in high schools, are required for success. What are you doing about this?

In fashioning yourself during the time that you are in high school, two conditions were found necessary. First of all, you had to have some aim which proved a test of your ability. This aim, however, must have been a challenge to perform your best at all times. But in doing your best, you felt a deep interest in what you were doing. You became so absorbed, that time and work became actually sweeter. Everything seemed to be inspired.

In a word, in order to be the architect of your own fortune, you must have some definite objective which you will pursue with zest and enthusiasm, because you know that you are making your own career. For continued success—"Stay in school."

JAMES P. WARREN,
Principal.

Grade Adviser

ESTHER SAXON

Your wise guidance has helped us make important decisions throughout our high school career. We appreciate your sincere interest in our problems and your words of encouragement.

Social Adviser

LILLIAN DUNN

Our social activities have been all the more enjoyable and entertaining because of your cheerful cooperation and friendly help. You may be sure that we seniors will not forget your patience and charm.

Senior Class History

For four years a great play has been in production at Bryant, starring the class of June, 1942. While participating in this play we have been portrayed in the role of freshmen, sophomores, juniors and finally seniors. Since it is now June and the play near completion, let us reminisce.

September, 1938, found us the typical freshmen as we gazed at the building which was to hold our interest for the next four years. We were bewitched, bothered and bewildered but all this disappeared as we were accepted as a part of Bryant on Freshman Day.

As Sophomores we were characterized by our eagerness to join every club in the school. Since this plan involved the possibility of a nervous breakdown on the part of our grade adviser, we decided to use a little moderation.

After two years' experience with the lunch line, wrong staircases, and the deans' office, we rose to the height of the 3B's. Along with this came our first competitive sports activity, when we challenged the fifth termers to a basketball game. The most successful event of our social program was the skating party at Beebe Rink.

With the arrival of the Junior term we found ourselves with a complete scholastic and social program. This term we had a special day dedicated to our class. We celebrated it with blue and gold Junior hats and a Junior Skit, "The Grass Is Always Greener On the Other Side of the Fence." On January 9 we placed the spotlight on the Hotel Del Monico for the Junior-Senior Prom.

Our passing marks proclaimed us Seniors and how we knew it! With a feeling of complacency we donned our title—Senior! March 5 was the date of the first all-senior function—a tea dance. The highlight of our athletic activities was the basketball game with the Juniors. Senior day brought the long awaited sequel to our social calendar on May 21. The seniors displayed their originality and sense of humor by wearing colorful costumes. "My Mamma Done Tol Me" was the riotous comedy written, produced and acted by the seniors.

This play of the past four years with its moments of joy and anticipation, has been in preparation for the greatest play of all—life. With an eye to the future and a heart for the past, we thank the entire faculty and express deep gratification, especially to Mrs. Saxon, our Grade Adviser, and Miss Dunn, our Social Adviser, for their untiring efforts in our behalf. May our memory, as those of our predecessors, live in the history of Bryant.

Last Will and Testament

Two score and thirteen years ago our forefathers brought forth on this island, the William Cullen Bryant High School, dedicated to education and the proposition that seniors graduate. With this thought in mind and foreseeing the great day of graduation ahead, we being of disposing mind and memory and not acting under any duress, menace, fraud, or influence of any person, circumstance or matter whatever, do freely and voluntarily make, publish and declare this our Last Will and Testament.

To Mr. Warren we gratefully leave our assignment notebooks so he can see the enormous amount of work we've had to accomplish in order to reach our position as graduates. We also leave him the memory of all the hard hours we seniors have spent in "doing each day's work each day."

To Miss Johnston we leave the hope that some day she will find an identical twin to share her work.

To Miss Dunn we bequeath our wishes that she'll never again have to live through the experience of having the same registration class for three consecutive terms.

To Mrs. Saxon we will our primary programs cards to show as shining examples to the next group that comes under her wing.

To Mr. Schwager we leave a pair of drum sticks so he won't wear out his pencils tapping on his desk while trying to get his classes quiet.

To Miss Riblet we leave our prayers that she will some day find a perfect English student.

To Mr. Praus we leave a silent bell so he will not be annoyed at changing time.

To Miss Klauer we leave a huge bouquet of orchids for being the modest guiding spirit behind the "Clipper."

To Miss Rogers we leave a long red pencil to replace all those she's worn out in correcting "Postscript" manuscripts.

To Helene Blouin we all leave our congratulations on the fine job she had done in making the Junior Class one of which Bryant may well be proud.

Ed Cooper leaves the title of Monsieur (pronounced Monsewer) to any other talented student of "la belle langue."

Our poetess, Mary McLinden, leaves her understanding of iambic pentameter to Helen Evangelista.

Margaret Brullmann, our patient "Postscript" secretary, leaves her efficiency to Peggy Graham, secretary of the Junior Class.

Loquacious Vera Melnik of oratory fame leaves her talent at proving a point to Vincent Carroza (alias Red) who raises the question of:—If women are drafted what's going to happen to their lily white hands that men love to hold?

Frances Tyman and June Trageser will their fine repertoire of giggles to anyone who'll claim them in 129. (Lost and found).

Kay Reed leaves her Hollywood aspirations to Mary Ann Carter who probably has them already.

Charles Hulse and George Bondra leave their old flash bulbs to Daniel Becker to use as he wishes.

Vinnie Lolordo and Jim Redfield quite obviously leave their basketball prowess to George Lindemann and Harvey Shevrin.

Arthur Antonides leaves his hepness to that solid sender, Frank Barese.

Curt Hoera and Jerry Friedman leave their column to any future Dan Parker.

The Lunchetteers leave their dulcet tones to the Boys Glee Club. (We hope the boys aren't offended).

To Dolores Sherwood, Arline Mayes leaves her glamor which rivals that of any Powers model.

To John Foggan, Alan Kaplan leaves his track shoes with the hope that Johnny will be able to wear them more than he has.

Elizabeth Âmanti leaves her old paint brushes to Gonzalo Morejohn who will no doubt make good use of them.

Angelo Demos leaves all those "Emergency Excuse from Recitation" he received during Economics 802 to the waste paper salvage committee.

Stan Gethin leaves his Jasha Heifitz tendencies to Mr. Katz.

We all leave.

In witness whereof we, the class of June '42, affix our signatures.

Junior Class

President ..... Helene Blouin
Vice-President ..... Lucille Bongiorno
Secretary ..... Margaret Graham
Treasurer ..... Evelyn Hayes
Historian ..... Ruth Moore
Boys' Athletic Manager ..... David Schaknne
Girls' Athletic Manager ..... Dorothy Johmann

This Junior Class is a very original one since we started out by electing all girl officers who have made the term a very successful one.

We won the Senior-Junior Basketball Game and fought hard against the 3 B's, but lost. A very enjoyable bowling party was held instead of the usual skating party. Junior Day found all of us with our purple and gold hats and emblems.

Our paper, the "Rag" helped to make these affairs quite a success as the Juniors were well informed of all our social activities. The climax to these good times was the Prom held in the Hotel McAlpin on May 1.

We all join in sincerely thanking our grade and social advisers, Miss Seith and Miss Bingham, who have been so kind and helpful in solving our problems.

The 3B Class

President ..... Frances Davanney
Vice-President ..... Eleanor White
Secretary ..... Jeanne Manning
Treasurer ..... Alex Austin
Boys' Athletic Manager ..... Harry Sydor
Girls' Athletic Manager ..... Kitty Savage

Now that the Three B's have organized, they have succeeded admirably in carrying out their objectives.

On the afternoon of April 30 the basketball game and dance with the Juniors was a great success. Another popular affair was the sixth term dance where the Juniors and Seniors enjoyed themselves.

The scholastic achievements of the Three B class are shown on the honor roll and in the Arista. We feel that this is due to the great diligence with which our grade adviser, Miss Theban, has guided and watched us. Mrs. Dannenfelser, our social adviser, has helped us succeed in our social activities.

This term thirty-four students received the blue and gold Arista pin at the installation on March 24. The new members are welcomed into the society at the Arista party.

Miss Catherine McEntegart is the faculty adviser to the group. She has wisely and efficiently helped the officers and members in the management of the Senior Arista.

Bryant Union

President ..... Melford Tietze
Vice-President ..... John Thompson
Secretary ..... Marion Dunn

Executive Council: Angelos Demos, Senior President; Helene Blouin, Junior President; Frank Devanny, Lucy Richter, Peter Katsoros, Donald Corrado, Jack Logan. Faculty Advisers: Henry Praus, Honorary President; Madeline Simon, Joseph Briggs, Charles Carpenter, Robert Alexander.

For the last year under the leadership of Melford Tietze, John Thompson, and Marion Dunn, the Bryant Union has aimed at a closer unity between all the students in the school. The plan was realized last term when a record of 93% of all the Bryant students was achieved; a record which stood far above the quotas of many previous years. This year, with the same idea in mind, the B. U. has been especially interested in organizing Bryant's defense program. At the present time the offcers of the B. U. are making plans for next term so that after their graduation, the work which they have contributed will go on uninterrupted.

"Play Ball" is the slogan for the Girls' A. A. whose program consists of Basketball, Volleyball and Badminton. Under their capable officers' direction, and the unfailing guidance of Mrs. Mignogna, the Girls' A. A. certainly is becoming a very popular club.

If you're inclined to be active in any of these sports, join the A. A., which meets Tuesday and Friday at 3:30 in Gym 2, and you'll learn to "Play Ball" the American way.

Glassman, Kaimowitz and Rauber were installed as Prefects this term, after a long period of preparatory training as members of the committee. They have thoroughly justified the wisdom of their appointment.

The most important effort of the Footlighters this term was the production of the spring play "If I Were King." They also took part in the junior and senior shows.

SENIOR CLUB		JUNIOR CLUB
Erwin Frish	President	Daniel Rao
Karl Schneider	Vice-President	Kenneth Rice
John Jerome	Secretary	Charles Howlett
John Farrell	Treasurer	Alfred Cimaglia
Robert Duignan	Librarian	Harry Evers

There are two boys' glee clubs. Both are regularly programmed classes and not after-school clubs. The senior glee club meets daily and the junior club twice a week.

This term as usual, the glee clubs have furnished many solos and choruses for assembly programs and for the spring play, and will sing at commencement.

Girls' Glee Club

President ..... Vivian Sendele

Secretary ..... Ameila Johnson

Librarian ..... Mary Gippert

The purpose of the Girls' Glee Club is to encourage the love and appreciation of good music, to acquire a fair degree of skill in its performance, and to train its members in good choral habits. This is to be accomplished through the reading and singing of songs of artistic merit.

Members of such an organization are entitled to credit the equivalent of one-half period of a prepared subject for each regularly scheduled rehearsal period.

The Heralders

President	Helene Blouin
Vice-President	Vincent Carrozza
Secretary	Kathryn Brignoli
Treasurer	Jack Coty
Press Agent	Evelyn Cohen
Faculty Advisor	Dorothy Engels

As their stock in trade, the Heralders indulge in the pleasures of public speaking. Without benefit of soapboxes, their meetings are given over to group discussions, panel discussions, mock trials ,impromptu speaking contests, debates, and other forms of forsenic activity. The Heralders' major project each term is the presentation of the Public Speaking Contest, one of the most important events on the school's intellectual-social calendar.

It is not the aim of the Heralders to produce from their ranks a Demosthenes or a Cicero. But they do have one aspiration that should be common among all who cherish democracy, the desire to speak logically, intelligently and effectively.

Orchestra and Band

ORCHESTRA		BAND
John Thompson	President	Bruce Boenan
Anthony LaRosa	Vice-President	Jeanne Tully
Florence Kaufman	Secretary	Connie Junger
Barbara Sarkany	Treasurer	Jean DiMormo

The orchestra and band have taken part in all important school affairs. This term the orchestra performed at the Senior Arista installation and also played the incidental music to "If I Were King."

The band performed at the Public Speaking Contest and also took part in the Arbor Day exercises.

402 is the busiest room in the school where the intriguing posters that decorate the walls of the school are made. Here the able and efficient leader, Miss Maddi, conducts class every school day, the first, sixth and seventh periods.

In this club we have many people who are well known in Bryant. For basketball fame we have Matty Ernau and the big little mascot Alfonso Jimenez. The track team is well represented by Dave Ilchert, Richard Flich, John Foggan and John Halligan.

The most prominent seniors in the club are Mildred Daffledecker and Charlotte Breuning. Mildred is prominent for her fine work in the Footlighters club and Make-up squad. Charlotte Breuning has distinguished herself in rendering excellent service as Executive Officer and Captain of the Girls' Service Corps. One of the most outstanding people in the club is Geraldine Ivory, who is among other things the publicity manager of the CLIPPER and the OWL and has been in both the senior and junior shows. She is also a member of the Make-up squad, Newman and Medical clubs and senior hostess. Muriel McGill is another member of the club who is circulation manager of the OWL and Business Manager of the OWL and Business Manager of the CLIPPER, member of the Footlighters and the Make-up squad, senior hostess, has acted in senior and junior shows, was featured in the Winter Festival and "If I Were King," and also represented Bryant at a Press Convention at Columbia University. Bryant's famed cheerleader, Eleanor White, is Vice-President of the sixth term. She is also famous for her gorgeous posters made with cellophane.

"Bryant Mobilizes 100% for Defense" . . .
"Victory Dance Held at Bryant" . . .

Such headlines are the fruits of the labors of the Press Club members, who write up Bryant news to send to the metropolitan newspapers. This term, defense activities have provided our most important news coverage.

With the aid of the official white and red press cards, we are forever busy gathering school news, sending it out, and posting printed items. Our best friends are all those students and teachers who are always full of news and give us interviews for the publicity of Bryant High School.

William C. Bryant Publications

The Clipper, Bryant's monthly newspaper, has been published since January 1939. The paper not only supplies the latest news of school activities but gives the students a permanent record of all important events occurring during their high school career. The Clipper placed second in its class at the recent Columbia Scholastic Press Convention.

The literary-arts magazine, The Owl, was first published in 1905. Because of present conditions the Bryant Union voted against sponsoring an issue for this term. The magazine contained poems, essays, and linoleum cuts contributed by students of all terms. It is hoped that publication will be resumed next term, since it affords an opportunity for the students to try their talents in these fields.
